A MESSAGE

FATHER RECTOR

It is a pleasure, at the beginning of a new year, to say a word of commendation and to express my sincere thanks to our alumni for the fine results of the Alumni Fund. I appreciate only too well the vast amount of effort that was given to this endeavor on the part of the Fund Council and the class agents, and I know the generous response which approximately 3000 subscribers to the Fund made to the appeal. To all of you Boston College is deeply grateful. I know that you be pleased to learn that, when the alumni expenses have been met, the balance of your contribution will be given to the College. It will be added to the gymnasium fund which you inaugurated a few years ago, and which is being kept intact against the day when it will be sufficient to erect that building.

May God bless you and your families in this new year. Let me assure you that you and your intentions will be in my daily Masses and prayers. I am sincerely grateful for your continued interest in your Alma Mater.

Joseph R. N. Maurer, S.J.

THE CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

The first annual report of the Boston College Alumni Fund is a pleasant one to make. We have made a start towards a high goal that some day shall be achieved. The Fund Council is a part of our Alumni Association and is made up of men whose responsibility is the development of generous annual giving to our Alma Mater. These men are loyal graduates of B.C. who believe that in past years we have been a little too apologetic in asking B.C. men to give to Alma Mater each year.

Every College today in order to fulfill their duties as moulders of our youth, to improve faculties, to enlarge campus facilities, to move forward in the social and educational life of America, must have a strong loyal Alumni who accept as their yearly duty the privilege of giving generously to an Alumni Fund.

A strong growing college protects the credentials of all graduates. It therefore becomes absolutely essential for all graduates to support the Annual Fund Campaigns.

We have had annual drives in past years—so called Loyalty Funds, but they have never tried to encompass all the Alumni. We have accepted too easily the fact that Boston College stands on the Heights but have looked indifferently to her financial needs.

This year we have reached a high figure in our fund history, but compared to other schools we still stand as small in relation to the percentage of graduates giving and in the amounts contributed.

It is small, but is a definite step forward. The Fund Council will operate in '53 hoping to have a similar increase in both divisions so that in '54 we can be sure that a growth pattern is definitely established.

I wish to express my gratitude to each and every class agent who so willingly served, and earnestly hope that you will keep your interest and develop more fund activity in your various classes this year.

The Executive Council is also deserving of great appreciation for the many hours they gave in supervisory work. All were willing volunteers and have done a tremendous service to Alma Mater.

The Metropolitan Chairman, John Mahoney, was extremely active in contacting and stimulating all Supervisors to increase their class participation and total contribution. Regional Chairman Dan Cronin '34 and Tom Cudmore '40 had serious problems facing them in organizing new segments of Alumni giving and '53 will see results from their planning.

Finally it would be difficult to say enough of the loyal and efficient management of the Funds Affairs by the Alumni Secretary Bill Flynn. Bill and his office staff have been the key to all the plans of the campaign year.

This year we have raised $41,873.32—2992 men have taken part. To Father Rector, we promise a greater drive for 1953 and hope to prove to him then that B.C. men have begun to put into action some of the dreams we had as devoted sons of Boston College.

He then can proceed with the many plans already formed for the physical plant at the Heights. He will know that the Alumni 15,000 strong all will stand behind him and Hail Alma Mater with their financial support.

☆ "The Regulars" Members that have given for three successive years or every year since graduation.

From Our 80th To Our 90th Anniversary

Ten years ago, on our eightieth anniversary, there were 2,688 students enrolled in the six schools of Boston College, 2,195 men and 493 women. At our June Commencement in 1942, Boston College awarded 499 degrees to graduates of our six schools. There were 198 members on our faculty, Jesuit and lay.

As we enter our ninetieth year, the Fall enrollment of our eight schools and colleges was 6,013, 4,264 men and 1,749 women. Only 10% of our students at the present time are veterans. There were 1859 students in our total entering class of all schools in September. At our last Commencement, 1,405 degrees were awarded to graduates of our eight schools. Our total faculty at the present time numbers 349 men and 31 women. The total enrollment of the University, including Summer Session and the Institute of Adult Education, is 7,519.

The ten years have doubled the faculty and the student body of the College. They have more than doubled our physical plant and property, as indicated by the pictures in this issue of the Alumni News. Our present enrollment represents one-twelfth of the total number of students in the twenty-seven Jesuit Colleges and Universities of the United States.

It is interesting to note that 1,313 students, 22% of our fall enrollment, are at present receiving $241,983 in student aid from Boston College, in the form of grants, aids, and scholarships. That is in addition to the 107 students who have been granted loans from the Student Loan Fund of $20,000 and the more than 50 students who are receiving $27,000 for work done in part-time employment at the College. It is also in addition to grants and awards to our students from other sources, as in the case of the School of Social Work where 38 of the students are receiving more than $39,000 this year in grants and assistance. Thus, while more than a quarter of our student enrollment is receiving financial assistance from Boston College, our funded endowment is less than one and a half million dollars.

During the past fiscal year, our total operating expenses approached three and a quarter million dollars. The total income from student tuition and fees was slightly more than one million nine hundred thousand dollars and covered but 61% of our operating expenses. In fact, the combined total of tuition and fees simply met the annual payroll of the College, salaries and wages of our lay faculty and employees. If our Jesuit faculty had been salaried in accordance with their rank and tenure, our payroll would have been increased by more than a half million dollars. That is one measure of the living endowment we have at Boston College in our Jesuit faculty.

Since our eightieth anniversary our building program has provided for the College of Business Administration, a power plant and maintenance building, a new cafeteria and classroom building in Lyons Hall, in addition to the purchase at Newbury Street for our Intown schools. Devlin Hall, our Science Building, has been considerably remodeled to provide double the laboratory and research space for the natural sciences. Our library facilities have been considerably expanded and, at the present time, the total number of bound volumes in our central library and twelve specialized libraries is over 414,000.

In the past decade the average annual salary of our faculty members has almost doubled. The College has also provided a faculty security program of rank, tenure, salary increment, insurance, and retirement annuity, in addition to joining in the federal program of social security benefits for our faculty and employees.

In the decade ahead, as we approach our Centenary, the promise and the problem is that facing all private, independent, liberal arts colleges, increased need and increased costs for we have immediate need to provide buildings for our Law School and for our new School of Education. The gift of the Kenny Trust Fund will be of great assistance in the continuation of our building program. There are the continuing problems of mounting costs of instruction, maintenance, and operation, apart from the need of increased facilities, that add to the cost of programs of student aid and scholarship assistance that have been ours for now almost a century.

In the past we have depended largely upon the assistance and gifts of devoted alumni and friends of Boston College. They have contributed generously to make the College and its achievements possible, as witness the private gifts of over seventy-five thousand dollars in the past year. In the years ahead our Alumni and the Alumni Fund are our greatest promise of assistance and success.

Alumni Program Offered June Graduates in Pre-Employment Preparation

By Thomas F. Turnan, '39

Chairman W. J. Cunningham, '26

Plans have been completed for the first two meetings in a series designed to equip Juniors and Seniors to recognize and overcome certain pre-employment problems such as the mechanics of applying for a job. These lecture and question and answer sessions aim at bridging the gap between the preparation and training for a particular field, and the actual getting of a job in that field.

An especially well qualified group of Alumni, familiar both with the program at the College and with conditions in the field, has been organized and includes Bob Griffin, '39, Chairman of the Alumni Ball Committee; Bill Cunningham, '26, Chairman of the Alumni Education Committee and Head of the Business Education Department at Charlestown High School; George Donaldson, '29, in charge of the B.C. Placement Bureau, and Charles Doherty, '51, of the Personnel Department, First National Stores, Somerville, Mass.

This committee has met with the Section Representatives of the Senior and Junior Classes to select the topics most suitable to the needs of the undergraduates.

The meetings will take place at 8:00 P. M. in Alumni Hall every two weeks, beginning Tuesday, February 10. The first of the All-Alumni Speakers will be Walter Dray, '34, presently Vocational Advisor for the Veterans Administration at Boston University. He will discuss Self-Analysis in connection with employment. This talk is to help the students to evaluate the qualities considered necessary for entering employment.

On Tuesday, February 24, Peter Quinn, '32, of Filene's Personnel Department, Boston, will discuss and answer questions on Written Resumes.

Succeeding speakers and their subjects will be announced later.

Chairman Cunningham emphasizes that this program is an Alumni function designed specifically for undergraduates and for the Class of 1953 and should not be identified with a similar program projected for former graduates outlined elsewhere in this issue. However, both groups are welcome to attend each series.

COMMUNION BREAKFAST Laetare Sunday, March 15th

The annual Communion Breakfast of the Boston College Alumni Association will be held this year on Laetare Sunday, March 15, 1953. If you are located outside of Metropolitan Boston, look in the Club Notes for further details. In Metropolitan Boston the Communion Breakfast will be at University Heights. This yearly spiritual event has formerly been held at the Cathedral, with breakfast at a downtown hotel, but with the completion of new Lyons Hall and its spacious and comfortable cafeteria, it was decided by the Committee that the Breakfast could better be held back home on the Heights.

President Donahue has appointed Robert J. Glennon, '34, Second Vice-President of the Alumni Association, to serve as General Chairman of the affair. He has announced that the Toastmaster for the breakfast will be Dr. Roy J. Heffernan, '16. Mass will be celebrated by the President of the College, the Very Rev. Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J.

This year the Association will have as its speaker our outstanding alumnus, His Excellency, Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, '17.

Tickets for the Breakfast are $3.00 and may be obtained by writing to Bill Flynn at the Alumni Office or by contacting your Class President.

Chairman, Atty. Robert J. Glennon, '34;
Toastmaster, Dr. Roy J. Heffernan, '16

CHARLES W. O'BRIEN, '33
ALUMNI REPRESENTATIVE

In May, 1952, Reverend Father Rector organized a Faculty Committee on Public Relations under the chairmanship of Rev. John A. O'Callaghan, S.J., composed of faculty members representatives of the various schools on the campus.

This committee has set up a complete guidance program for the Freshman Class and plans to do the same for all students on the Heights.

The committee has been at work for several months considering practical means for promoting a larger and better student body in all of the schools at Boston College. One means adopted was the formation, through the cooperation of the Alumni officers, of an Alumni Committee which would assist in making Boston College better known to High School students.

The Alumni Committee, with Charles O'Brien acting as liaison, is made up of key and contact men who are working in the several communities of Eastern Massachusetts.

This Committee works on the following plan. A key man in a given district, assisted by as many contact men as he thinks necessary, sees to it that prospective students of his district are acquainted with the opportunities offered by Boston College.

All Alumni are urged to cooperate with the key and contact men who are serving on this Committee. Please advise Father O'Callaghan if you are willing to help in this very valuable work.

The Alumni Committee and the districts they represent are:

Edmund L. Flaherty, D.M.D., '47, John E. Gallagher, '50, CBA, Allston and Brighton; John J. Brennan, '33, Charlestown; William J. Fitzsimons, '35, Robert F. Buck, '29, Paul F. Reddy, '50, Dorchester; Joseph R. Murano, '52, Arthur G. Ciampa, '49, East Boston; Thomas J. Lane, '42, William A. Doherty, '37, Hyde Park and Mattapan; George Norberg, '39, Arlington; T. Edmund Garrity, '23, Belmont; John F. Sullivan, M.D., '33, Braintree; William B. Hickey, '34, Brookline; Dr. Thomas H. D. Mahoney, '36, Cambridge; Paul R. Duffly, '22, Canton; John H. Fitzgerald, '42, Chelsea; Edward J. Handy, M.D., '40, Hull and Cohasset; Victor E. DeRubeis, '37, Everett; Edward A. Aaron, '31, Hingham; Thomas F. Spencer, '48, CBA, Melrose; Rev. Joseph J. Keenan, '17, Albert W. Branca, M.D., '39, Milton; William E. O'Halloran, '47, Newton; Rev. William C. Carroll, '32, Norwood; Albert J. O'Shea, Lynn; Philip Garity, '40, Quincy; Fred J. Mauriello, '51, Revere; George E. Crimmins, '32, Tino A. Spatola, '44, CBA, Randolph; Rev. John J. Lane, '20, Reading; James P. Curtin, '32, Somerville; Robert D. Callahan, '38, Stoneham; John M. CHEMICAL SOCIETY TO PAY HONOR TO DR. O'DONNELL ON SILVER JUBILEE

On Saturday evening, April 18, in the College Cafeteria, a Testimonial Banquet will be tendered to Dr. David O'Donnell of the Chemistry Dept. Dr. O'Donnell has been a professor of organic chemistry for the past twenty-five years and has earned the plaudits and affection of students.

The testimonial will be given by the Alumni Chemical Society under the chairmanship of Gene Lawlor, '31. The ticket committee is headed by Paul Boylan, assisted by Bob Ward, John Prince, Kevin Kennedy and Bob Gladu.

A social hour will be held between 6:00 and 7:00 P. M. at the Alumni Hall, followed by dinner at 7:00 P. M. at the College Cafeteria.

Students and all the Alumni are cordially invited.

THE JOB FINDING CLINIC

JOHN J. BRENNAN, '43

The 1953 version of the Alumni JOB FINDING CLINIC, inaugurated by Louis F. Musco, '34, is a carry-over by popular demand of the first Forum conducted at Alumni Hall in the spring of '52.

Young and old graduates of Boston College are welcome to attend this most important function of teaching our graduates how to sell themselves into better jobs within their chosen fields or careers.

On February 16th, Monday evening, at 8:00 P. M., the first Clinic will be conducted in Alumni Hall under the leadership of John J. Brennan '42. Interested Alumni members, undergraduates and friends of Boston College are invited to call the Alumni Office for reservations to participate. Other speakers will include Messrs. Peter Quinn, Joseph Tuscher, Joseph Killelea, Peter McDermott, Kenneth Minihan, and George Donaldson, who are all recognized authorities in their fields.

Classics Club For Alumni!

The classics department offers to cooperate with the Alumni in conducting a Classics Club, which would meet monthly, perhaps on a Friday evening, for the reading and discussion of classical authors. The procedure will be simple. Each of the participating Alumni will prepare a brief section of the author being read, and the rest will follow in their texts. All who wish merely to sit in on the meetings will also be welcome. Interested Alumni are asked to send a card to the department chairman, Fr. Leo P. McCauley, S.J., so that a meeting may be arranged in the near future.

HUNDREDS PATRONIZE WEEKLY DANCES AT ALUMNI HALL

In its second year of activities, the Saturday Night Club has proven overwhelmingly popular with the alumni. Beginning late in September, 1952, there has been dancing at Alumni Hall every Saturday night for alumni and their guests. There is a nominal charge of $1.00 per couple, made to cover the costs of operation. Have you availed yourself of this opportunity to meet your friends at a delightful social in the shadow of the towers?

SPECIAL PARTIES

On the occasion of holidays and other party seasons, the Saturday Night Committee composed of John J. Campbell, chairman and William J. McCool, and Robert Lawler as co-chairmen have arranged special parties. The first of these came at Halloween when the club sponsored a party attended by approximately one-hundred alumni couples.

The evening of the B.C. - H.C. game another gala program was arranged when over two hundred alumni and guests had dinner at Alumni Hall, and as many more came for dancing and other festivities.

The Christmas season brought the second annual Sleigh Bell Ball on Saturday, December 27, 1952. This was a semi-formal affair and a buffet luncheon was served to all those in attendance.

On December 31, the club sponsored its second annual New Year's Eve party attended by nearly two-hundred alumni and their guests. A buffet dinner was served at midnight and dancing continued until 2:00 A.M. Those who attended the party were very enthusiastic and agreed that it was a splendid conclusion to the year 1952, and an excellent beginning for 1953.

VALENTINE PARTY

The committee is completing final plans for the Valentine Party to be held at Alumni Hall on February 14. This will be our first special party of the year; a buffet luncheon will be served. Dancing will take place from 8:00 P.M., until midnight. The cost — only $2.50 per couple.

Arrangements are being completed by an active committee headed by Timothy X. Cronin, '45, chairman; Robert J. Griffin, '39, chairman of the house committee; John J. Campbell, '45, William J. McCool, '49, and Robert Lawler, '48.

John J. Burns '21

John Burns is an ideal example of the benefits of a Jesuit liberal education. A graduate of B. C. High and Boston College, he carried that background with marked distinction through undergraduate and graduate courses at Harvard Law School, from which he received degrees of LL.B. in 1925 and S.J.D. in 1926. Since that time his thoughts and actions have at all times been animated by the philosophy taught him at the Heights.

For two years he practiced law in Boston with Gaston, Snow, Saltonstall & Hunt, and in 1928 he returned to Harvard as Assistant Professor of Law. His assigned courses were Criminal Law and Insurance, but he had the signal honor of taking over Dean Pound's graduate course in Jurisprudence during the Dean's extended absence in Washington. In 1931 he was appointed a full Professor of Law, but before he could assume the post he was designated an Associate Justice of the Superior Court of Massachusetts by Governor Ely. He was only twenty-nine years old at the time, the youngest appointee in the long and distinguished history of the Superior Court. While still on the bench, he served also as Chairman of the New England Regional Labor Board, where he was notably successful in composing the differences of litigants that came before him.

After three years of judicial service Judge Burns resigned in 1934 to become the first General Counsel of the newly-created Securities and Exchange Commission, one of the first and most respected of the New Deal agencies. This position offered a stimulating challenge, since almost every decision established a precedent which would continue to affect the regulation of our highly sensitive financial markets.

Since 1937 Judge Burns has been in private practice; he is now senior partner of Burns, Blake & Rich of Boston and Burns, Currie, Rich & Rice of New York. As a good citizen he has taken time off for public services, and has served as Special Counsel to the United States Maritime Commission and as an adviser to the Alien Property Custodian. For his public services and outstanding reputation at the bar, he has been awarded honorary degrees by Boston College, Loyola University, St. John's University and Holy Cross College. He is a Trustee of

Children's Hospital of Boston, a Director of The United Corporation and W. R. Grace & Co., and a Trustee of Eastern Gas & Fuel Associates.

Although his professional activities have required him to spend considerable time in Washington and in New York, John Burns is essentially a local resident. He was born in Cambridge on May 1, 1901, and was married there on June 14, 1930 to the former Alice Blake. There has never been any question but that his roots are in and around Boston. All seven of his children have been raised at the family home in Belmont, though they stray as far as Cape Cod in the summer. The two eldest boys, Johnny and Danny, are undergraduates at Boston College; Bobby is at Holy Cross, and Alice Therese is at Manhattanville.

In his published articles John Burns always returns to his basic philosophy. Thus, in his recent review of Mr. Justice Douglas' book, "Being an American", which appeared in 34 American Bar Association Journal 815, Judge Burns made these searching comments:

"How far can the state safely be permitted to go toward desirable objectives? Where can society find a source of discipline that does not adumbrate the storm trooper? One of the puzzling features of modern liberalism, is its understandable hatred for power in private or corporate hands and its completely uncritical devotion to an ever-increasing concentration of power in the hands of a central government."

"The antidote for Communism can only be found in tapping once more the springs of a strong religious society from which came the ethics, the morality, and the simple virtues which made our present greatness possible."

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Forty radiant sunshine Boston College men in Southern California welcomed Father Rector and Bill Flynn on January 8 in the Detroit Room of the Statler Hotel, Los Angeles. All had a wonderful evening with Chairman Jack Roche, '36, presiding. Officers elected for the coming year are: George Reinhalter, '38, president; Chester Antos, M.D., '31, vice-president; Dave Concannon, '33, treasurer; Bill Freni, '42, secretary; Myles Connolly, '18, Jack Roche, '36, Rev. Francis Caffrey, M.M., '17, executive board. All present voted unanimously to hold a Communion Breakfast on Laetare Sunday, March 15. Dr. Bob Reynolds, '33, was appointed chairman of the Breakfast and on the committee are Rev. Edward Douglas, S.J., '19 and Dan O'Connor, '37. All members will be notified of the time and place by the committee.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

On January 12 the Club held a dinner in honor of Father Rector at the Marines' Memorial Club. Some fifty members and their wives attended and had an enjoyable evening with president Ed Hogan presiding and John F. Roake acting committee chairman. All were enthusiastically in favor of holding a Communion Breakfast on Laetare Sunday, March 15. Time and place will be announced later. Among the Alumni present were: Col. Warren Clear, Frank Barrett, Vincent Milmore, Jim Oates, Dan Finnegan, Jack Callahan, Pete Monahan, Rev. John Ryan, John Clinton, George Clinton, Cliff Backand, Jim Cannon, Bill Hamrock, John Gately, Paul Sharkey, Andrew McGlynn, John Roake, Ed Hogan, John Doyle, Phil Brooks, Rev. Joseph Rock, S.J., Ensign Kennedy and Vin Moran.

DETROIT

The first meeting of the new Boston College Alumni Club of Detroit, Michigan, was held at the Detroit Leland Hotel on January 20, 1953. The Club was organized through the efforts of Rt. Rev. Carroll F. Deady, '22, and Frederick L. Donaher, '20.

Twenty-five Boston College Alumni attended the dinner meeting after which officers were elected and plans for future meetings were discussed. Rt. Rev. Carroll F. Deady, '22, was elected President, Frederick L. Donaher, '20, Vice President, and Joseph W. Tobin, '51, Secretary-Treasurer.

A Communion Breakfast will be held March 15, at Holy Name Church, Birmingham, Michigan.

The initial meeting of the Boston College Club of Detroit was hon-

CONNECTICUT

The annual meeting of the Connecticut chapter of the Boston College Alumni Association was held November 13 at the Woodshed Inn, Farmington.

Rev. Arthur J. Riley, '25, Ph.D., historian of the Knights of Columbus, was the guest speaker. Father Riley stressed in his remarks that this was called the century of Our Lady because of her numerous appearances and revelations: notably at Lourdes and Fatima, and these revelations were made long before the world recognized the nation of Russia in the role which she is now foistering upon the free world. He said that it is remarkably significant that the Blessed Virgin is the Holy Patroness of our great country and that we should find much guidance in praying to her during these days of world tension and crisis. At the business session of the Society, the following officers were elected for 1953: President, Michael A. Corcoran, M.D., '26, Simsbury; Vice-President, Edward J. Fitzpatrick, '17, Waterbury; Sec'y-Treas., Thomas A. Duffy, '36, Hartford; Chairman of the Board of Directors, Joseph A. Fitzgerald, '13, New Haven; Chaplain, Rev. Arthur P. Hanley, '30, Chaplain, St. Francis Hospital.

It is planned to have the next meeting in the Southeast section of the State, in Fairfield County.

NEW YORK

The next meeting of the New York

Club will take place early in February.

We are planning to conduct a Communion Breakfast on Laetare Sunday, March 15, joining with all B. C. clubs throughout the country.

The final meeting of the year will take place about the middle of May, when we hope to have Father Rector as our guest. The officers of the Club who will complete a two-year term in May are: Bernard W. Frazier, '41, Pres.; Anthony A. Driscoll, '26, Vice-Pres.; Edward V. Kilduff, '39, Treasurer; John A. Hickey, '19, Secretary.

WEST ROXBURY

It is planned to sponsor a local Communion Breakfast in the near future and to feature a lecture as well as one or two Spring activities.

BERKSHIRE B. C. CLUB

The Berkshire B. C. Club was organized on Friday, January 9, under the direction of Rev. Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J., and Senator Silvio Conte, '49.

Another meeting will be held about the middle of February, when plans will be made for the Club to join other Alumni groups throughout the country in the General Communion Sunday on March 15.

Alumni in the area who are interested in becoming members of the Club should contact Father Mulcahy, Shadowbrook, Lenox; Sil Conte, 74 North Street, Pittsfield, or Ed Clasby, '50, at Cranwell Prep School, Lenox, Mass.

MILTON

At a meeting of the Milton Club on Monday, January 19, Edwin M. Thomas, D.D.S., '44, was elected president. Other officers are: William G. Hayward, '36, vice-president; William P. Noonan, '48, CBA, secretary; Daniel McElaney, '52, treasurer.

CAMBRIDGE

The club held its annual "Past President's" night to open our 45th season on Thursday, December 11, 1952, at the Hotel Commander in Cambridge. It was a very successful affair, and in addition to having as guest speaker Rev. Thomas F. Fleming, S.J., assistant to the President of the College, we also honored two of our club members who have recently attained high public office, Hon. Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr., Congressman of the 11th Massachusetts District, and Hon. Jeremiah J. Sullivan, Judge of probate at Nantucket. There were short addresses by the club president, Dr. Salvatore Romeo, and the general chairman of the affair, John F. Coady. Assisting chairman Coady on the committee, in addition to the club officers, were Francis J. Good, Thomas F. Coady, Edward F. Hurley, M. Francis Nolan and John J. Campbell.

DENVER

Father Rector and Bill Flynn talked with members of the Alumni in Colorado. Rev. Fabian Joyce, O.F.M., '39; Paul T. McGrady, '36, and Edward B. Clancy, '37, hope to have a Communion Breakfast in Denver on Laetare Sunday, March 15. They will contact members in their area, notifying them of the time and place of the breakfast.

CHICAGO

An exceptionally well attended reception to Father Maxwell and Bill Flynn, Alumni Secretary, was held on Monday, January 19, at the Bar Association, Chicago, Illinois. Ed Kenney, '40, presided in the absence of President Bill English, '31, who was out of town on business. Also present at the meeting were visitors Bill Joy, '40, Boston, and Jack Beatty, '41, Florida. Father Rector acquainted the members with recent changes at the Heights and said that he hoped to start building the new Law School in the Spring. It was voted that the next meeting of the Chicago Club would be its Communion Breakfast to be held on Laetare Sunday, March 15. Details will be sent to all members.

Cosmopolitan Boarders

O'CONNELL HALL

PREFECT'S ROOM

The students still sing "For Boston," but at St. Joseph's Hall and O'Connell Hall the old tune is sung with a difference. Here, in the B. C. dormitories, the old, familiar words ring out in the accents of half a dozen tongues, occidental and oriental—vocal evidence of the cosmopolitan character of an expanding mid-century.

Each September, young men appear from distant parts of the globe for incorporation into the B. C. dormitory system and, consequently, absorption into collegiate life on a level of intimacy that is not possible to the commuter. It is in the dorms that the Jesuits can really come to grips with their charges. The lot of the dorm student, therefore, may or may not be a happy one, but it is certainly a rigidly disciplined one.

On a normal class-day he is tumbled out of bed at 7:00 A. M., surrendered to the classroom and intramural program during the morning and afternoon, and recaptured at 7:00 P. M., when he settles down in his room for the evening study periods, 7:30-9:00 and 9:45-11:00. Every evening, a Jesuit Prefect roams his Hall, checking on his men and finally trundling them off to bed at 11:00 P. M.: but, basically, the B. C. dormitories are self-disciplined. The dorm student works very hard at his books, with very little urging—much harder, perhaps, than we did at B. C. two decades ago. On week-ends, there are out-permissions and opportunity for a degree of social life which, indeed, is an integral part of college experience.

In this highly disciplined atmosphere, the Dormitories exhibit a cheerful mélange of nationalities that they could well be imitated by the world outside our walls. O'Connell Hall, for instance, is a United Nations in microcosm. Foreign students are generally lodged with Americans to facilitate assimilation of the American tongue and the American mind. But, of course, a rule of thumb in this regard is impossible.

Thus, Adriano Solis, from Cuba, and Jose Falcon, from Puerto Rica, room with Americans at their own request; while the Puerto-Rican Miranda brothers were separated; and yet we thought it well to preserve a Philippine Room, inhabited by Santiago Afable, Alberto Lopez and the latter's brother, the redoubtable Benito, who can be found lecturing to half the freshman football team on the complexities of Far East politics. We got French-speaking Jean-Marc leFlamme, of Quebec, started on the wrong foot. He came here to learn English, and found himself assigned to a section of the Hall where he could hear nothing but Spanish. He was rescued by French-speaking Americans from Maine, Pawtucket, etc.

Upper classmen may pick their own roommates. But the close friendships, thus revealed, follow no perceptible racial or geographical pattern. Thus, in Room 103 at O'Connell, you will find Chas. Pelczarski of Three Rivers and Bob Lawlor of Meriden: in Room 111, Denis Holtz of Baltimore and Paul Tourangeau of Westbrook, Me. in Room 109, Chas. Ebert of Jamaica, L. I. and Ray Fukutani of Yokohama—the latter curled up in Japanese kimona and slippers over his Cosmology book. And there are, of course, the characters from Brooklyn, with their own language and their quaint native customs which are the wonderment of all and sundry.

There is much to be learned: and the complexities of Jesuit education are sometimes less baffling than the complexities of the Boston subway system (some students have quailed before it and come home in taxis). But the American "melting-pot" is a powerful instrument, and it is bubbling away as merrily and effectively in the Boston College dormitories as anywhere in the nation.

The Library

By REV. TERENCE L. CONNOLLY, S. J.

Alumni will be particularly interested in changes and improvements that concern library appointments, resources and service. So this first article to appear in the Alumni News will be scarcely more than a catalog of these. Since the opening of the new Church of St. Ignatius, July 31, 1949, parochial activities are no longer held in the library auditorium. As a consequence the two rooms adjoining the main foyer and auditorium are now devoted to an Irish Library, including nearly every aspect of Irish culture—history, art, literature and music—ranging from reproductions of seventh century manuscripts to publications of the Cuala Press. Besides the Irish Library, there are in these rooms paintings and drawings by the most important contemporary artists of Ireland and windows of Irish stained glass that in the opinion of those best qualified to judge are unique among examples of stained glass in America for excellence of execution and design.

Many alumni will have memories of three classrooms facing Commonwealth Avenue, now devoted to library use—a cataloging room, a processing room, and a periodical room for publications formerly kept in the room on the right as you enter Gargan Hall. In this room, at present, are the public card-catalog and works of reference, with a reference librarian in attendance. The corridor leading to the converted classrooms has been made a gallery of American art. The seating capacity of Gargan Hall has recently been increased to 296 with added accommodations for nearly 100 in other rooms, making a total of approximately 400, exclusive of the auditorium with a seating capacity of 615, reserved for group study.

Besides changes that meet the eye, others of greater importance are known only to those who make use of the library. After two years of intensive work, our rare books—arranged, classified and cataloged—are accessible to scholars in many fields and preliminary work on our valuable Jesuitana is well under way. During the past three years more than 2000 titles in philosophy and religion hitherto inaccessible except to those with stack privileges, have been cataloged and cards filed in the public catalog.

The James B. Connolly Collection comprises a complete set of autographed first editions, an album of clippings concerning the author and his work and a nearly complete list of unbound periodicals in which his stories first appeared. Among the periodicals is a very rare set of Lime-light, a weekly of current events (1933-1934), the first 14 issues of which were edited by Mr. Connolly.

The Thomas Merton Collection was begun when the author presented to the library the original typescript of The Seven Storey Mountain, including many unpublished passages and interesting corrections in the author's handwriting. Besides autographed first editions of all his works published to date, included in the collection are all known translations—French, German, Italian and Spanish. A treasured association piece, also a gift from the author, is his personal copy of Poetry and Prose of William Blake to which reference is made in The Seven Storey Mountain.

The Coventry Patmore and Meynell Collections are nearly complete and the Francis Thompson Collection, because of acquisitions purchased two years ago by the Jones I. Corrigan Foundation from Wilfred Meynell's estate, is now the most complete in existence, including manuscripts of all but four of the collected poems and many of uncollected and unpublished poems and essays. A complete catalog of the Thompson Collection, sponsored by the Friends of the Library, is now in preparation.

A guide to the resources and services of the library, entitled Introducing Your Library, published in 1950, is for distribution gratis to all students, graduate and undergraduate. More general in scope is an 88-page brochure, The Library, giving its history and a description supplemented by 17 full-page half-tones and a colored frontispiece of the windows of Irish stained glass. Copies are obtainable for a nominal charge of one dollar.

On the wall of the main staircase is a beautifully executed bronze tablet, first gift of the Friends of the Library, upon which is inscribed a prayer adapted from the liturgical Blessing of a Library. With it we shall close in the hope that it may often be repeated by our Alumni to insure God's continued blessing upon the important work still to be done: O God, Master of all Knowledge, mercifully pour forth Thy blessings upon this Library, that it may duly grow from day to day and that all who come here to help or to study may advance in knowledge of things Divine and human and grow in Thy love through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Reception Room during Richard King Exhibition

As this edition of the Alumni News is being readied for the printer, the sports scene at the Heights takes on somewhat of a rosy glow.

We are midway through the hockey and basketball schedules and the players are more seriously concerned with their mid-term examinations. The track team, making its own strides back to cinder-path prominence, is also idle at this time. Football is past with a future bright, and baseball will be coming alive at Alumni Field before too long.

FOOTBALL

Capt.-elect Joe Johnson, Football

Going back to the Fall days, we saw an improvement in the football team. Prospects are even brighter for another season. The two-platoon system of football has been tossed out by the N.C.A.A. Rules Committee and Mike Holovak feels better about it. He looks to Captain-elect Joe Johnson as an outstanding two-way player. The Eagles will also have the benefit of some Spring practice, since the grid squad is being allowed twenty sessions starting on April 13th.

HOCKEY

When the college hockey forecasts started to appear in the November editions, local experts pointed toward Harvard, Princeton, and B. U. as the major teams to be considered this winter. B. C. was to suffer a relapse due to heavy losses of personnel for varied reasons. The Eagle coach, John Kelley, too, felt this was one year the B. C. hockey representative might not be strong enough to maintain the usual prestige of B. C. sextets.

There were anxious and startled faces as B. C. licked Yale 6-4 in the opener at Lynn. Brown's 6-4 win over B. C., though, returned the experts to their original premise that B. C. just wouldn't have enough for the gruelling schedule before it. A 2-3 overtime loss to Harvard came as a surprise again whereas questions arose as to whether B. C. should have won or not. Still, B. C., in the writers' poll, fluttered about in third or fourth position. The Harvard loss was actually the tip-off that B. C., despite its losses from last winter, was going to be a tartar on the rinks again this winter. This clue brought forth conviction as the Eagles swept through the next five games without strain. Two shutouts over Northeastern, a 5-4 decision over Brown at Providence, a whumping of B. U. at the Garden, 7-3, and finally a more decisive win than the score (4-2) indicates over Princeton. So now the Eagles sit with six wins and two losses on the ledger. Quite a turn-about from pre-season predictions.

B. U., again, becomes the first foe after this exam period, on January 31st. Then, Dartmouth, Northeastern again, and the big return bout with Harvard on February 11th at the Boston Arena. Should the Eagles and Harvard, as well, maintain their present paces, this future meeting should call for a roaring B. C. turnout at the Arena. The Harvardians will be there.

BASKETBALL

In the record book the basketball team has not fared too well. But, go beyond the win and loss columns and you may see a pretty fair job being done. The B. C. five was hit particularly hard by graduation. Four regulars went from the Heights last June. Al McClellan had two boys left from the regular working squad of last winter . . . Captain-elect Johnny Silk and 6-6 Tony Daukas. A year ago, "The Gen" prepped another boy, a freshman named John Whelpley, for regular service. The coach chose between two boys, Whelpley and Lou Shurtleff. One was to get as much experience as possible last year in order that he might fill in for the personnel losses this winter. Whelpley played a part in every game last year. He was the coach's choice. Shurtleff saw brief service. Well, before the season started, Whelpley was taken into the Army and the coach's preparations went with him.

So, B. C. went scrambling for a while. Shurtleff got his try but wasn't ready. "The Gem" came up with another boy named Phil Powell. He was doing well until he sprained an ankle early this year. He is still the team's fourth high scorer. The

B. C. coach also reached into the intra-mural program on the campus to dig out a boy named Jim Cashman, a senior. This fiery red-head is doing an excellent job.

Daukas and Silk are living up to expectations. Daukas, in ten games now, is averaging almost twenty points per game, while Silk is better than sixteen points a game. Johnny O'Hara, a little man for this game, is carrying part of the load, and Stan Sincoski also helps.

The quintet has been scoring enough in each game to normally win, but unfortunately, the opponents have been scoring a bit more—to earn the decisions. Right now, B. C. has won three and lost seven. Silk fell short of glory in the Seattle game when his 35 points were overcast by Seattle's Johnny O'Brien who hit for 41 points. Daukas tied an all-time B. C. high of 37 points in the third Rhode Island game, played at B. C.'s gym.

TRACK

Bill Gilligan has put the track team on a regular working basis. He is going to need time to produce a strong unit but the ground work is being laid. Interest in track has fallen off badly during the past decade and any stimulant given now will help. The runners have their own track room and space indoors for whatever phase of the sport that can be conducted inside a restricted area. The board track was moved from Alumni Field to a spot adjacent to this track room, site of the old freshman field. Gilligan has a few names in his pocket right now which may produce in the near future. Bob McAllister, Tom Magnarelli, Pat Lochiatto and a few more are good prospects.

The 1953 baseball team, which should make its appearance on Alumni Field within another two months, will be missing one of the best prospects B. C. has known for sometime. Joe Morgan, who a year ago was voted captain of the 1953 team, departed from baseball and hockey competition last June with a Braves contract in his hands. Joe's loss has been felt by the hockey team, but will be felt even more by Johnny Temple when he starts to align his nine for the coming season. Bill McMorrow, a pretty fair outfielder and a long ball hitter, was chosen to replace Morgan as the team captain. Aside from the loss of Morgan, Coach Temple also lost Mike Roarke, a great catcher, who also signed a Braves contract before stepping into an Army uniform.

JACK RYDER TESTIMONIAL

Boston College through the Varsity Club honored its Coach Emeritus Jack Ryder with a Testimonial Communion Breakfast on Sunday, December 14, 1952. In a day filled with honors that will be long remembered, St. Mary's Chapel overflowed with former pupils and friends. Very Rev. Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., president of Boston College who celebrated the special Mass, paid unusual tribute from the altar at its conclusion. Father Maxwell praised Jack Ryder for his years of devoted service to the college.

At the breakfast in Lyons Hall, Ryder was presented with a purse by president Joe Killelea, Graduate Mgr. John Curley presented a huge plaque symbolic of his election to the Helme Track Hall Of Fame, and coach Bill Gilligan his successor gave him the Varsity "B" scroll. Chairman Joe Ingoldsby in presenting an embossed autograph folio signed by those present announced the formation of "The Jack Ryder Track Club." The club will endeavor to carry on the great Ryder traditions of Track at B. C. and to promote increased interest in this most worthy sport. Membership is open to former trackmen and friends of the sport.

Jack Ryder gave thanks to the capacity gathering with these simple and sincere words, "All I can say is that I thank you from the bottom of my heart." The fact that so many of his 'boys,' great, near great and health squad could be with him on this memorable occasion was something they will long cherish and remember.

The Varsity Club wishes to thank all who by their contributions and their presence helped to make this occasion so successful. Invited guests in the long program of tribute included. Frank Sullivan, S.J., Msgr. Thomas McNamara, Ryder's first track manager, Rev. Maurice Dullea, S.J., Rev. Frank Harkins, Leo C. Donahue, president B. C. Alumni, Walter Brown, president of the B.A.A. and Boston Garden, Bill Kenney, director of the K. C. games, Coach Oscar Hedlund of M. I. T. and Commander Ralph Colson. Members serving on the committee included P. J. Killelea, Tom Cavanaugh, Bill Gilligan, Tom Meagher, Louis Welch, Luke McCloskey, Pat Mahoney, Ben Hines, Ralph Ward, Ed Murphy, Nat Hasenfus, John Ryder, Elmer Ross, John Curley and chairman Joe Ingoldsby.

Former Professor Gene Feeley has brought to our attention the death of classmate John Prendergast on November 22. John was one of the few surviving members of Boston College's earliest football teams, playing guard in 1894-95-96. He always retained a deep interest in the College and found the greatest joy in meeting old B. C. grads, especially members of his own class. R.I.P.

Very Rev. Francis J. Connell, C.S.S.R., lectured recently in Brooklyn under the auspices of St. John's University. He is Dean of the School of Sacred Theology of the Catholic University of America, and author of "Morals in Politics and Professions".

Rev. John Mahoney and Rev. Andrew White have pastorates in Somerville. Father Mahoney is at St. Catherine's and Father White at St. Ann's.

John J. Savage is on Sabbatical leave from the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Fordham University. He will retire from active teaching this coming June after eighteen years of teaching at Fordham, part of the time as chairman of the Department of Classics. John's son, Brian, is a senior at Fordham.

Bishop MacKenzie presided at our Fall dinner recently which was one of the best attended and most enjoyable of recent years.

Tom O'Hare's nephew, Father Frank, ordained at Rome last year, is the assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church, Revere.

Bill O'Sullivan's son, John '44, married Mary Jo Smith, November 7 at Washington, D. C., and is now representing the Manufacturers' Casualty Co. at Pittsburgh. Dan O'Sullivan '50 married Carolyn Steinmetz of Kansas, December 20 at Fort Riley Chapel, Kansas. He was in the Graduate School of Government when he entered the Service and will return for his Degree.

The Class was represented at the Reception and Dinner to Jack Atkinson '16 by Bill O'Sullivan, Ed Sullivan and John Keohane.

Ed Sullivan is now in his fourteenth year as President of Salem State Teachers College. His exceptional success as an orator, teacher and executive is no surprise to us with whom he entered B. C. High in 1906. President and medal winner of the Marquette Debating Society, medal winner of the Fulton Debating Society, member of both intercollegiate debating teams, prize winner of the Oratorical Contest, associate editor of the Year Book, Ed early gave promise of future success.

He has proved to be an outstanding son of Alma Mater in every way.

The sudden death of Father Tom Ford, pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Church, Belmont, was a great shock to us. Father Tom was always a loyal classmate and a generous participator in all our activities. R.I.P.

With prayerful remembrance we record the death of Father Joseph J. Sullivan, S.J., who entered B. C. High with us in 1906 and after graduating in 1910, entered the Society. He became an adopted member of our B. C. class and attended our functions whenever he was stationed nearby. May he rest in peace!

Father Ignatius W. Cox, S.J., who was connected with us both as Professor and Sodality Chaplain from 1909 until 1914, celebrated the Golden Jubilee of his entrance into the Jesuit Order on October 19. We were very happy to extend our felicitations and best wishes through Bishop MacKenzie on this momentous occasion. The last time he was in Boston was at the consecration of Bishop Eric, at which time he was very happy over the elevation of one of his most illustrious and distinguished pupils.

John S. Keohane's son John Jr. announces the birth of his second son, Peter, on December 8 at Huntington, Indiana.

The annual class dinner was held on Monday, February 2, at Alumni Hall, with class president Leo Halloran presiding.

On Saturday, January 17, more than 600 people were present at a testimonial dinner tendered Jack Atkinson at the Hotel Statler. Among the speakers was Dr. Roy Heffernan. Jack was given a scroll extolling him for his high civic virtues.

Father McNulty is now pastor at St. Gregory's, and Father Farrell is at St. Margaret's, Dorchester.

Kindly remember in your prayers Father Logue's sister and our classmate, Dr. Frank O'Connell, who died on January 10.

Fr. Dullea informed us a short time ago that his mother is still hale and hearty. She is living with brother Edward in Milton and observed her ninetyeth birthday in November. Our most sincere congratulations to your mother, Maurice.

Tom Kinahan passed away in November. In the sanctuary at the Requiem Mass which was celebrated in St. Ann's Church, Wollaston, were Fr. Keenan and Fr. Dullea. Pall bearers were Porky Flynn, Bo Mahoney, John Mahoney and Rado McKeon. Present at the Mass were Marty Higgins, Bill Reid and Joe Dee. The sympathy of the class is extended to Mrs. Kinahan and to Tom's family.

The following group enjoyed a dinner and get-together at Alumni Hall on the eve of the Holy Cross game: Charlie Fitzgerald, Marty Kane, Clarence Greene, Bill and Mrs. Herlihy, Connie Manley, Charlie Sexton, J. Paul Lynch, and of course, your worthy correspondent. Bill Carey and Bill Cashin, due to emergency commitments, were unable to attend. It was a most pleasing and jovial party, making up in good fellowship for lack of numbers. Too bad the next day's results were not as pleasant.

Daniel J. Murphy has been appointed Director of the Bureau of Antideceptive Practices of the Federal Trade Commission in Washington, D. C.

Tom Reynolds appeared in a December issue of Life Magazine. A member of the Chicago law firm of Winston, Strawn, Black & Towner, he is associated in the representation of the Wilmington Trust Company, one of the defendants in the widely publicized DuPont case. Tom Reynolds, Jr., is a graduate of Georgetown University and Michigan University Law School, and is an attorney in the same office as his father. He is married and has one child. Son John is a Georgetown alumnus and is presently in basic training at Fort Knox; Anne and Sheila are students at Manhattanville College; Susan and Maryellen attend school in Illinois.

We are the thirty-year class come next June. Keep this in mind and also circle March 15 as Laetare Sunday, this year. We are giving you enough notice so that you will not become committed to local Communion Breakfasts, many of which are planned for this day. You will hear in due time from the committee which is headed by president Joe Sweeney.

The saddest of notes to report since our last issue is the death of our beloved and stellar classmate, Dr. Lawrence Joseph McCarthy, who was buried on September 22. Larry was admired and loved by all of us. He made an excellent reputation as a physician and surgeon, and in World War II attained a Captaincy in the Navy. Requiescat in Pace.

The second annual Memorial Mass for our highly-esteemed and gifted classmate, Gerald F. Coughlin, was held in St. Gregory's Church, Dorchester, E. (Revere) Sullivan, Tom Coughlin, Jack Conway, Father Joe McCall, Steve Bridey, F. X. Sullivan, Father Joe Lyons, Joe Ingoldsby and Luke McCloskey.

Col. Leo Keefe, who is in Korea training the South Koreans, upon receipt of the notice for the reunion, wrote: "I thrill to receive notices of class activities. Unfortunately, I am seldom within traveling time to attend. Give my regards to the class. Tell them I remember every one. It would be futile to single out names as all are dear friends."

Major Dan O'Connell is stationed at Camp Carson, Colorado.

Steve Bridey was chairman of the successful Varsity Club dinner at the Statler on February 1.

Early in January, Rev. John Devlin, S.J., of Holy Cross buried his mother. The sympathy and prayers of the class go to him in his bereavement.

Next on the calendar of class events is the Memorial Mass in May. Already thirty-four of the class have passed to their eternal reward. Please plan to attend the Mass. We'll see you then.

The sympathy of the class is respectfully offered to Mary Fitzgibbon Santry and her children for the loss of our classmate, Francis J. Santry.

Our sympathy is proffered to our classmate William J. McCann and his wife, Anna, on the loss of their eldest son, Leo J., a freshman and a brilliant student at the College. Leo was one of the eleven children of Bill and Anna.

With Frank and Leo we must also remember in our prayers the families of our classmates, the late Rev. George McHugh, Professor Robert F. Buck and Dr. Dermot Bowen, now of Edinburg, Scotland, who have suffered losses of devoted parents. God grant them eternal rest.

Your correspondent had hoped to give you news of the class dinner at Alumni Hall, which was the second largest held since we left the Towers, and to give you excerpts from a delightful letter from John Joseph Benedict Barnwell (of Beacon Hill) but we have limited space in this issue.

However, at the risk of overwriting, we must tell you that Barney is on the way to recovery from a serious illness and is looking forward to being with us at our 25th. Classmates can drop him a line at 1272 Holmby Avenue, Los Angeles 24, California.

We hope to have a Communion Breakfast in the spring.

Leo is Section Supervisor of Tube Research for Burroughs Adding Machine Co., in Philadelphia—electronic computers and such. Leo's little book lists Vincent Paul McCauley as assistant to the V. P. of American Airlines, based in New York and shows that Francis X. Murphy's interest in the Chemistry Club at the College stood him in good stead. Frank is in charge of patents for the Pfizer Chemical Company. A communique from the Keystone State over the signature of Dr. John Petkus tells us that he has his practice at Shohola, Pa., where he and his wife the former Elizabeth Busher of Bronxville, N. Y., are busy trying to placate their two sons and daughter. According to everybody's Rand McNally Shohola is located between Minisink Ford and Glen Spey. Our Rand McNally is located among the top-flight physicists at Oak Ridge, Tenn. Capt. Bill Wagenbach, Medical Corps, USA, returned recently after a 17 months tour as Battalion Surgeon with the Infantry in Korea where he was awarded the Bronze Star. Larry Fitzpatrick has returned for the second time to his teaching post at Somerville High following his activity at Rapid City AFB in South Dakota. Another Thirty-Niner, currently making a lot of dough, in the teaching ranks is Art Fleming. He is Instructor in Baking at Boston Technical High School. (Soggy, wasn't it?)

John J. Ryan, V. P. of the General Discount Corporation (see adv. this issue) lectured on Commercial Finance before students in the Finance Department at the College of Business Administration. Another item from CBA is the resignation of Paul Devlin, Chairman of his department, to join a private accounting organization in Boston.

More additions and relocations amongst the accountants—Jim Doherty announces the arrival of his fifth youngster, and fourth daughter, Elizabeth, as well as his new assignment with the Boston Regional Renegotiation Board, a Federal Agency. Tom Quinn has been appointed Public Administrator for Plymouth County. Edition dates and pre-publication foul-ups being what they are we aren't sure that this Alumni News will hit the stands before February 15, but in any event that is the date Ed Weaver expects to be discharged from the Rutland Heights TB Hospital, Rutland, Mass., to return to his home at 43 Oakridge Street, Matapan. We understand that he can receive visitors at Rutland up to that time and of course a letter or card should reach him at any time.

The "anguished plea" of last issue's Class News has now reached the strident squeal stage. The notes, Class—as well as Bank—are a bit on the fragmentary side. We can use a lot more of each. Send 'em along, collect if you elect, but send 'em.

Brigadier General Daniel J. Lynch, S.J.
Jan. 1, 1879—Nov. 13, 1952

On November 13, 1952, Father Daniel J. Lynch, S.J., died suddenly of a heart attack.

Father Lynch had been stationed at the College for thirty-three years. He came there, from his Chaplaincy in World War I, in 1919, and for the next eight years taught in the Physics Department. In 1927, he was appointed Treasurer of the College and held that post until 1940, at which time he was recalled to active army service. Between World Wars I and II, Father Lynch had been Chaplain of the 26th Infantry Division and on induction into Federal Service he was appointed Chief Chaplain of the Division with the rank of Lt. Colonel. In 1942, the heart ailment, which later caused death, forced his retirement from active service. He was placed on the Retired List with the rank of Brigadier General in 1946.

Back at the Heights, Father Lynch recovered sufficiently to continue his work with the Philomatheia Club, the valuable Women's Auxiliary of the College. Father Lynch was the Spiritual Director of the Club from 1922 to the day of his death; indeed it was in the Clubhouse that the fatal heart attack came upon him.

Father Stephen A. Shea, S.J., died on December 21 at St. Elizabeth's Hospital. All who shared his scholarly talents, his devout priesthood and able administration feel deeply his loss. The respect and esteem in which he had long been held was manifestly present at St. Ignatius Church where Father Maxwell, S.J., President of Boston College, celebrated a Requiem Mass at which clergymen, classmates, faculty, friends, and former students assisted with his family. Father Shea was a native of Lynn, where his mother and family still reside. He was a graduate of both the high school and the college. He was ordained a priest in 1933 at Weston College and was buried December 24, 1952 in the cemetery there.

ner held at the Hotel Statler, Sunday, February 1.

"It is with sadness that I hear of schools dropping football and I hope I'm never numbered among them," said Father Maxwell.

Bob Cote, Biddeford, Maine, received the Varsity Club trophy for the senior best combining scholarship, character and football ability. In accepting the trophy Cote said, "I thank you for this tribute, but my greatest thrill has been and always will be working as a member of a football team of which all B. C. men should be proud."

Senator John F. Kennedy, featured speaker of the evening, named the B. C.-Georgetown game of 1940 as the most exciting football game he'd ever witnessed. Mike Holovak said, "the main purpose of college is to develop a boy mentally, morally, spiritually and intellectually. No game is worth winning at the mental and moral expense of a boy."

Jack Buckley, '27, presented song parodies that were well received.

Other speakers included: Rev. Maurice V. Dullea, S.J., '17, faculty director of athletics; John P. Curley, '13, graduate manager; captain John Toppa; captain elect Joe Johnson; Holy Cross captain, Joe Gleason; Paul Hines, Jr., '45, Boston Post; Francis X. Ahearn, '40, president of Boston City Council; Rev. Francis V. Sullivan, S.J., '21; P. Joseph Killelea, '34, president of the Varsity Club; Charles Bridey, '27; general chairman, and Louis F. Musco, '34, toastmaster.

To the . . .

MAN of the House!

Time was when the “little woman” did all the shopping—and the pantry shelf was a mystery to men. But, nowadays, many men want to know what’s cookin’—and have a say about selecting it.

Why don’t you join YOUR wife next time she shops at A&P? You’ll see how much farther your hard-earned dollar goes at A&P!

It’s A&P’s policy to bring more good food to more people for LESS money. And, every item you buy is GUARANTEED to please you, or you get your money back without question!

Come see . . .
